HARVEST HOSTS / BORREGO SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA

Welcome to Riviera Farms

We’re glad you’re spending the night with us. Mornings are our favorite time on the farm. If you’re up early, keep an eye out for the hens making their rounds.

Settling in

Please park in the designated Harvest Hosts area and leave the access roads clear for farm vehicles. As you explore, leave gates as you find them, give the animals and crops their space, and take your trash with you when you go.
